Introducing
*the universe
of technological careers for*
GIRLS

GETT provides girls in grades 6-12 from the Delaware Valley with the opportunity to explore a universe of exciting careers in innovative technology through hands-on activities and interaction with successful role models. This event is free for attendees but relies on the donations and efforts of corporate sponsors and volunteers.

Contact Lisa Velte at 610-981-8060 for additional questions including registration and presentation opportunities.
