ITAG and Technology Professional Networking Group sponsor panel discussion, “So You Are in Transition”

Event takes place on Thursday, October 15, 2009

EXTON _ The Innovative Technology Action Group and Technology Professional Networking Group are sponsoring a panel discussion on “So You Are in Transition.”

The panel discussion is directed at those information technology professionals in transition. Panel participants are Carole Anne Minski, Manager of Organizational Solutions for the MidAtlantic Employers’ Association; Colleen Hamilton, Executive Director of Life Science Career Alliance; Anthony Gold, Chief Executive Officer of Healthy Humans; and Patrick Bokovitz, Director of the Chester County Workforce Investment Board.

The event takes place on Thursday, October 15, 2009, at the Radisson Hotel Valley Forge, 1160 First Avenue, King of Prussia. The event begins at 5:30 p.m. and the cost is $5.00. To register, go to <http://phillytpng.pingg.com/October2009>.

ITAG is a regional initiative of the Chester County Workforce Investment Board and the Chester County Economic Development Council with grant funds received from the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry. TPNG works with information technology professionals.

The Chester County Economic Development Council is a private, non-profit economic development organization that has been nurturing economic growth in Chester County and the surrounding region for nearly 50 years. The Council’s portfolio of business growth services includes: low-interest financing, small business lending, workforce training, retention and expansion, customized international business assistance, land and building site selection, brownfields consultation and remediation, urban redevelopment, and agricultural economic development. The Council also offers state-of-the art conference and training facilities at its facility in Eagleview. For more information, see www.cceconomicdevelopment.com.
